Capture your richest strategic resource...

A large and critical part of your organization's knowledge base is currently uncaptured.

ACIS® facilitates the capture of this strategic resource and weaves it together with relevant information resources including news feeds, databases, internal and external document stores and web sites. An unprecedented, detailed picture of the business landscape emerges, revealing critical dimensions of evolving company strategies, intentions and problems.

- Identify critical opportunities and threats earlier than your competitors
- Make better, faster, more informed decisions
- Establish a one-stop-shop for critical real-time information
- Avoid embarrassment, mistakes and surprises by leveraging previously uncaptured information and knowledge from across your organization
